Who Would Not Be A Mason

by Bro. Charles F. Forshaw, M.D.
Published 1905

Who would not be a Mason
And wear the apron white?
And feel the bonds of Friendship
The rich and poor unite?
To know Masonic virtues,
To do Masonic deeds?
And sympathetic minister
Unto a Brother's needs?

Who would not be a Mason
And join the brethren true?
To see our noble teachings
Their glorious work pursue?
To feel a bond Fraternal
Is theirs where'er they go?
And find a hearty welcome
As they journey to and fro?

Who would not be a Mason
A craftsman just and fair,
To meet upon the Level
And part upon the Square?
To hear the voice of Charity,
Where'er our Lodges be?
And to know our Grips and Passwords
And share in all our glee?

Who would not be a Mason
To labor day by day?
And laboring try to lessen
The thorns upon life's way?
To help to form a column,
All perfect and complete?
Fit for building that great Temple
Wherein we hope to meet?

Dick Grove Elsie Deam, Grace Smith, Marie Landis, Lil Zlatin

We are in urgent need of a sunshine Chairman....a caring person who will keep in touch with the “down but not out” brethren and keep us apprised of their condition/needs.

Coaches Corner

Because we have not had much degree work, the Master has been scheduling practices on Thursday nights, a night that should already be set aside for Lodge. Recently, we have not had enough officers present to practice any of the work. Even though each officer may know his part perfectly, each part is dependent on the others for timing, etc.

The hieroglyphical emblems teach us that the Bee Hive is an emblem of industry, and recommends the practice of that virtue to all created beings. In it's explanation, we learn that dependence is one of the strongest bonds of society, and mankind was thus formed that he will so demean himself not to be the drone in the hive of nature.

DON'T BE THE DRONE IN THE OFFICER'S HIVE. TAKE PART, SUPPORT THE GROUP.
